THURSDAY EVENING, NOV. 30, 1905.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:59 a. m. and sets at 4:39 p. m. High water at 11:13 a. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair and colder tonight. Friday fair, continued cold; brisk northwest to north winds.

Pretty Wedding.

A pretty wedding was the marriage Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock in St. Teresa's Church. Anacostia, of Miss Rose Tassinara Sullivan of that place and Mr. John Aloysius Lannon of Alexandria. Rev. Charles M. Bart, the pastor of St. Teresa's Church, performed the ceremony. He was assisted by Rev. Fathers M. P. Egan of Anacostia and Outler and Bowden of Alexandria. Many friends of the contracting parties witnessed the service, in addition to the large circle of relatives of the couple. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Dr. James F. Sullivan of Philadelphia. She was becomingly attired in white liberty silk and lace and wore a tulle veil. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Pauline Finotti, daintily gowned in white French mull and lace, preceded the bride, carrying the latter's white prayer book, a gift from Rev. Father Bart, her pastor. The best man was Mr. Thomas S. Lannon of Alexandria, a brother of the groom. The altar was lighted with numerous tapers and surrounded by palms. Miss Jennie C. Bartley, the organist played Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" as the ceremony proceeded. The ushers were Messrs John D. Normoyle and George A. Harlow, of Alexandria, and C. F. Thompson and Raymond A. Heiskell, of Washington. A reception was given the young people by the bride's uncle, Mr. Frank M. Finotti, at his home on Jackson street, Anacostia. Among those present were Mrs. Ellen D. Finotti, Mrs. Thomas Lannon and Miss Lannon of Alexandria, Mr. Jesse Heiskell, Mr. and Mrs. Adams of Alexandria, Mr. and Mrs. Roche of Alexandria, and Mrs. Green of Alexandria, Miss Nettie Heiskell, the Misses Hardy, Mr. Thomas Lannon, Mrs. John Finotti and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Finotti and many others. Mr. and Mrs. Lannon left on a northern trip and will return to reside in Alexandria. The groom is a business man of this city and the bride is a daughter of Mrs. Rosina T. Sullivan, of Anacostia.

Mackey Indignant.

Mr. Crandall Mackey, Commonwealth's Attorney for Alexandria county, was indignant in his utterances yesterday when Dr. Ashton, the County Coroner, reported to him the action of Dr. W. R. Purvis, Coroner of this city, in ordering Demaine & Son to bury the remains of James Richardson, colored, who was killed by Alexandria policemen near Spring Park last Monday. He is reported as having said that the action of the city authorities was undignified, and that if any one would prefer a charge of murder against the four policemen who were concerned in the death of Richardson, he would cause their arrest and present the matter to the Alexandria county grand jury. Nobody has the remotest idea of doing any such thing, and if the unlikely should occur the county would incur an unnecessary expense in order to show petty resentment. When asked if the county coroner would take any action against the undertakers who removed Richardson's body into this city, Mr. Mackey said that Dr. Ashton might prosecute them for contempt. Dr. Purvis is believed to have acted in a legal and common sense manner in the premises.

Mildred &amp; Rouclere Co.

Mildred and Rouclere, the superb mystifiers, will appear at the Opera House again tonight, having given a matinee this afternoon, the performance pleasing every one. Everything this year is entirely new except the title. They do not carry an exhibition of the cheap variety, but have put a large expenditure of money on the stage, thus securing the very best vaudeville acts. Among the acts are: Bert Lennon, characterist personality; Faruon, acrobatic comedian; Andy McClure, monologue artist; Rena Saunders, soprano singer, and Doug Leggett, eccentric comedian. Mildred and Rouclere will present their latest masterpiece, "The Flight of Princess Iria," with all the latest mechanical effects.

Thanksgiving Day.

The weather today has been fair, but the temperature rather too low for comfort, the brisk northwest wind which set in last night having continued today. A partial holiday has been observed, and services were held in the different churches according to the announcements made yesterday.

All schools were closed and government employees together with many others were given holiday. The day was spent in many ways, according to individual tastes. Numbers of Alexandrians visited Washington, while equally as many from that city came here. A large percentage of men went on gunning and fishing trips.

Asphyxiated.

Mr. Ernest T. Rudolph, a clerk at the German Savings Bank in Baltimore for 25 years, was found dead at his home, 217 North Mount street, yesterday morning. Mr. Rudolph had been suffering from pleurisy for some time and he retired Tuesday night about 10 o'clock and left a gas heater and a light burning. It is thought that death was caused by pleurisy, superinduced by the gas. Mr. Rudolph was 45 years old and was born in Baltimore. He leaves two brothers, Rev. William Rudolph, of Illinois, and Mr. Walter Rudolph and three sisters, Miss Annie Rudolph, Mrs. John Behrens of Baltimore, and Mrs. George Schriener, of this city.

Virginia Democrats.

The annual dinner of the Virginia Democratic Association of the District of Columbia will be held at the Riggs House in Washington, on Monday, December 11. A large number of invitations have been issued and the attendance is expected to be large. Among those invited are Hon. John Sharp Williams, Gov. A. J. Montague, Hon. Joseph E. Willard, Governor-elect Claude Swanson, Senators Daniel and Martin and Mr. J. Taylor Ellswoon, Lieutenant-Governor-elect. Several persons from Alexandria will attend.

Personal.

Mr. W. P. Graves, jr., has returned from Asheville, N. C. Rev. Edgar Carpenter and his bride have returned from their wedding trip and are now at the rectory of Grace Church, on South Patrick street. Miss Jessie R. Armstrong last night at her home on Prince street, entertained a number of her friends at a delightful Thanksgiving party given in honor of her guests, Misses Evans and Hodges, of Philadelphia, and Miss Miller, of Baltimore.

The Confederate Memorial Literary Society held its annual meeting for election of officers yesterday in Richmond. The membership committee reported that Mrs. W. A. Snaot, of Alexandria, had been made a life member by the U. D. C., of Alexandria.

Mrs. A. H. Smythe, who had recently been in the Alexandria Hospital while suffering from pleuro pneumonia, has materially improved and has been removed to her home.

Miss Alice Hart, of Hampden-Sydney, is visiting Miss Mary Thomson.

Cha-wa-kai.

A Cha-wa-kai, or Japanese tea, will be held in the rooms of the Alexandria Library (in Lee Camp Hall) tomorrow (Friday) afternoon, December 1st, from 3 to 10 p. m. The decorations of the rooms consist of genuine Japanese paper and reed ornaments, screens, fans, lanterns, napkins, tablecloths and various other weird forms known and used exclusively by the little people of the far East. These decorations have been imported especially for the occasion and will be offered for sale, together with the various other articles suitable for Christmas gifts. An especial feature will be the "salad bowl," which will test the literary knowledge of the patrons. This Cha-wa-kai will not only be a "feast of reason," a supper to satisfy the inner man after he has struggled with the "literary salad" will give increased desire for the more substantial supper of salad and other good things to eat, which will be another feature of this unique entertainment.

Indecent Conduct on Train.

Arthur Johnson, colored, while in a state of intoxication, boarded an incoming electric train a short distance north of this city shortly before 9 o'clock this morning. He had not been on the train long before his indecent conduct caused Conductor Crockett to telephone for officers to meet the train upon its arrival in this city. Officers Henderson and Beach were on hand when the cars stopped at King and Royal streets and took Johnson in custody. He was helplessly drunk and will be locked up until tomorrow morning when he will be brought before the Police Court.

Fatal Fall.

Richard Lawis, colored, of Brick Haven, Alexandria county, died in Washington last night from injuries received by falling from a wagon which he was driving near Long Bridge on Monday afternoon. In falling Lewis struck his head on the pavement, fracturing his skull, and the wheels of the wagon ran over him, breaking both legs. Lewis was well known in this city.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary A. Blanchette, who died Tuesday night, took place from the residence, 1228 Prince street, this afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Jeffers. The pallbearers were Messrs. Drowns, Hess, Boyd, Garnett, Kaue and Earley.

Odd Fellows.

Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows are anticipating an interesting time at their meeting tomorrow night. The degree team will meet tonight for the purpose of rehearsing the work of the third degree which will be conferred upon three candidates tomorrow night.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Many Alexandrians living elsewhere came home to spend Thanksgiving Day, and the family reunions were numerous.

There was but one case before the Police Court this morning, that of Henry McNeil and Addie Wood, both colored, who had been arrested for disorderly conduct. The man was dismissed, but the woman was fined $10.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Hampton V. Hicks and Minnie A. Neal, of Leesburg; Benjamin Branch, of Culpeper, and Cora Fryer, and to Peter S. Davis, of Wilton, Okla., and Mamie Anderson, of Fairfax.

Judging from the number of men and boys, white and colored, who left this city today in quest of game, if any rabbit or bird in the surrounding country escaped being shot it was frightened to death.

A report of another hold-up and robbery near the new depot was in circulation today, but could not be traced to an authentic source. More than one-half of such reports are without foundation.

An electric car was derailed near Spring Park shortly before noon today, and interrupted the running of trains for some time.

This was Donation Day at the Alexandria Hospital, and many kind friends remembered that deserving institution.

The Exact Thing Required for Con stipation.

"As a certain purgative and stomach purifier Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets seem to be the exact thing required, strong enough for the most robust, yet mild enough and safe for children and without that terrible griping so common to most purgatives," says R. S. Webster & Co., of Udon, Ontario, Canada. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

The Murder of Mrs. Todd.

The most baffling of all New York's recent murder mysteries, the doing to death of Mrs. Margaretta Todd, was yesterday nearer a solution than it has been at any time since the body of the eccentric old woman was found lying on the tracks of the Reading Railway, in Fairmont Park, Philadelphia.

Mrs. Todd, it is now known to the satisfaction of the legal representatives of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Tousey, was lured to Philadelphia to be killed. The plot was hatched by persons who were concerned in her death at that particular time in order that their financial interests might not be impaired.

Robbery was the prime motive, but jewels or cash were not the spoil the murderers sought. Diamonds worth many thousands of dollars were on Mrs. Todd's hand and at her throat when the body was picked up. The plotters sought important papers. These are missing. Mrs. Todd had them with her when she started from the Hotel Von Hoffman, in New York, to proceed unwittingly to her death.

These papers were regarded as vital by those whom they concerned. How vital may be judged by the fact that the conspirators were reckless enough to risk putting their heads into a noose by slaying a defenseless old woman and then thrusting her body upon the railway tracks in order to make it appear that she was run down by a train.

What these papers are, and exactly how the crime was accomplished, cannot be told now, according to Theron Davis, of counsel for Mrs. Tousey.

Rate Regulation.

The draft of the bill prepared by the Interstate Commerce Commission at the request of the Senate committee on interstate commerce was sent to the committee yesterday, and from now on will form the basis of negotiations for a rate regulation measure. The points in the proposed bill are:

Interstate Commerce Commission given power to declare a rate, which shall be in force after 30 days.

Right given to fix a differential and prescribe a maximum and minimum rate to prevent discriminations.

Power to change classification of any article.

Carriers who fail to obey an order of the commission are to be fined $5,000 for each day of violation after the order goes into effect.

The government to be the defendant in all appeals from the commission's order.

Inspectors to have the right to examine the books of railways.

Prescribes the account books to be kept by railways.

Fought Police With Fire.

Fire was used to battle the police yesterday in one of the biggest race-track poolroom raids made in New York during recent months. Forty men were arrested in the raid. The alleged pool-room was on East Eighth street, on the third floor of a five-story building.

When the police appeared a phalanx was heaped on the floor of the room and set on fire. Although the building itself also caught fire, the men in the room locked themselves in behind steel-barred doors, and raising the windows so that the smoke could escape they shouted in unison "Fire! Fire!" A panic immediately broke out in another part of the building among factory girls, who rushed down the stairs upon the police, and who had to be rescued and quieted before the raid could continue.

The streets below were filled with a howling crowd, whose efforts to locate the fire and to help the girls still more impeded the police. When the officers entered the room the last vestige of what they charge was the evidence which they hoped to secure was burning on the floor. The fire had already spread to one of the walls, but was extinguished by the police.

Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. F. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My life had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake night. Two physicians could not help her, so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which came her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store, price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

A Liquid Cold Cure.

A Cough Syrup which drives a cold out of the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels is offered in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Clears the throat, strengthens the lungs and bronchial tubes. The mother's friend and the children's favorite. Best for Croup, Whooping-Cough, etc. A liquid cold cure and the only Cough Syrup which moves the bowels and works all cold out of the system. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.
